COURSE OBJECTIVES

Course Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. Understand basic spoken Italian;
2. Communicate in basic Italian using familiar everyday expressions related to practical needs;
3. Introduce yourself in Italian;
4. Interpret simple sentences and expressions written in Italian;
5. Write short sentences in Italian.

Required Textbook

Title: Introductory Italian I (eTextbook)

Author(s): Sandra Parmegiani

Edition / Year: 2019

Publisher: Top Hat

ISBN: 9781774121405

The JOIN CODE (JC) for this course is – 564944

The eTextbook is an exclusively digital book (price around $35). It may be purchased directly from Top Hat: <https://bookstore.tophat.com/s/> (please buy Introductory Italian I and not any of the other two Italian books). You can also buy the book through the uWaterloo bookstore. Please purchase the book at your earliest convenience, ideally not later than the end of the first week of the semester. Please be aware that the book is opened (and becomes visible) chapter by chapter as we proceed through the topics from one week to the next. Also remember that if you are using Top Hat in another course during this semester, you do not need to pay for the additional Top Hat app/platform (around $30) but only for the digital book. Before starting to use Top Hat, students should first consult these links to ensure correct use of Top Hat digital book and platform:

<https://tophat-1.wistia.com/medias/91zmttu8r> : This is a walk-through on how to use Top Hat for the first day of classes.

<https://support.tophat.com/s/article/Student-Top-Hat-Overview-and-Getting-Started-Guide>: Consult these best practices for optimal use of Top Hat.

If you encounter technical issues while using Top Hat, please contact support@tophat.com or call 1-888-663-5491 between 9am and 9pm EST, Monday to Friday. You will be contacted within 24-48 hours (excluding weekends).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSESSMENT

Assessments

The grade determination for this course is indicated in the following table. A brief description of each assessment is provided below. Due dates can be found under the Schedule heading of this outline.

Table 1: Course Assessments

Assessment Item	Weight
Top Hat Online Exercises	22%
Discutiamo! /Weekly Discussions (0.5x12)	6%
Riassunti / Summaries (2x12)	24%
Compiti /Assignments (7x3)	21%

Assessment Item	Weight
Oral Assignment on LEARN (Video Assignment)	7%
Final Test	20%
Total	100%

Assessment Descriptions

Top Hat online exercises

At the beginning of each chapter, students will be assigned a number of exercises accessible through the Top Hat online platform. Students are expected to closely review the topics covered in each chapter and to complete the exercises by the due date. There are exercises which are to be found within the given chapter and others outside of it. Both these exercises will be assigned and are graded. Marks for each chapter are updated after each due date and can be checked on the Top Hat gradebook. Students have 4 attempts to give the right answer to each question assigned. All the work assigned through Top Hat is worth 22%.

Weekly Discussions

Starting in week 1 and ending in week 11, you are expected to participate in weekly Discussiamo! activities, where you will practice the grammatical and linguistic structures introduced that week with your peers. These discussions are worth 6% of your final course grade. The Discussiamo! activities are peer learning opportunities, designed to allow you to connect with your peers and discuss newly-introduced concepts with them. They will help you learn the language more efficiently. Discussion forums can be accessed by clicking Connect and then Discussions on the course navigation bar above. Be sure to post your responses by the deadline specified in the Course Schedule. All discussion forums are class-wide.

Short Summaries (Riassunti)

Every week, you will be asked to write a short 200 word-summary in English (or Italian if you choose) on a topic that is related to the material covered during the given week. The topic for the weekly summary is to be found attached to each riassunto dropbox and to the beginning-of-the-week announcement as well as at the end of each LEARN unit. Each riassunto (summary) is worth 2%. In the summaries you will write in the second half of the course, you are encouraged to sometimes attempt to write your summary in Italian in order to practise your newly-acquired linguistic skills. This is completely optional and you should only attempt it if you feel confident. No marks will be deducted for not trying this out.

The aim of this assignment is to reflect on the topics of the week. You are not required to do research for this assignment: it is a short summary of a specific grammatical point. It is, however, paramount that you illustrate your points through original examples in Italian.

You will receive high marks for taking the time to reflect upon the given topic, summarize the most salient points, illustrate these points through examples and write a generally coherent piece that respects the instructions in terms of length and topic. Please read the rubric for this assignment on LEARN.

Compiti

The compiti (assignments) are written and/or oral activities to test the students' skills in all the required abilities in Italian (listening, speaking, reading and writing). They should be around 250 words long and should be written/delivered ENTIRELY IN ITALIAN. Each compito is worth 7% of the global mark and thus it is of utmost importance that you give these assignments due time and attention. You should start thinking about these assignments ahead of the week when they are due. You will be writing a compito roughly every month for a total of 3 compiti.

Compito 1: Un Colloquio (A FORMAL INTERVIEW). You should WRITE the script of an interview between two people. The setting is of your choice but do keep in mind that an interview will require that the two people address each other formally (USING the LEI form). Remember to use the grammatical structures that you have learnt thus far and do not try to use structures you are unsure of. A sample video of a job interview (but you can choose to write any interview) is available in the Cultura, Geografia, Curiosità section of Unit 4.

Compito 2: Il mio orario settimanale (MY WEEKLY TIMETABLE) You should write a 250-word paragraph where you describe what you usually do during a typical week. Remember that we use the present simple tense (the basic and simplest tense) to describe activities that happen habitually. You start by saying what you do on Monday, Tuesday, etc.

Compito 3: La mia ricetta preferita (MY FAVOURITE RECIPE) You need to produce a video clip in Italian that lasts between 3-4 minutes where you prepare a dish and describe step-by-step the recipe. You also need to attach a transcript of the video. PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU ONLY POST THE LINK TO THE VIDEO ON DROPBOX AND NOT THE VIDEO ITSELF. You may want to make sure to produce your video on an unlisted account to protect your privacy. One good option is to use Powtoon.

Oral Assignment on LEARN Video Assignment

Oral Assignment on Video Assignment: 7%

The oral assignment will be carried out on the video assignment section under the SUBMIT tab on LEARN. You can also access the video assignment from the CONTENT tab. Specific instruction about expectations for this assignment can be found on LEARN \(Content > Activities and Assessment > Video Assignment\).

The oral assignment is worth 7% of the total grade.

Final Test

The final test will be administered via Learn quizzes. The final test (NOT a final exam) is scheduled on the last day of lessons for this course, that is Tuesday, July 26th 2022. The test lasts 3 hours and students can start the test any time during the 24 hours of July 26th. Regardless of when you start the test, the system will lock after 3 hours. Please be aware of time zones and do not start the test late at night because by 11:59 pm ET of July 26th 2022, THE SYSTEM WILL LOCK. More details about the final test can be found on LEARN \(Content > Activities and Assessments > Final Test\). A list of instructions to follow will be also posted on announcements closer to the date.

Final Test: 20%

Duration: 3 hours (an extra hour is being allowed to compensate for any tech issues that might arise)

Date: Tuesday, April 5th, 2022

Location: Online final test via LEARN QUIZZES

Due to the cumulative nature of language, the final test comprises grammar and vocabulary covered throughout the course. A mock test will be posted two weeks ahead on announcements. Answers to the mock test will also be posted.

COURSE SCHEDULE

What to Expect for this course on LEARN:

- LEARN UNITS 1-12. Units include dialogues, discussion forums, vocabulary exercises, video clips where grammar is explained, and links to videos about Italian Geography/Culture/History.
- 2 Mp4 Recorded lectures for the week posted on LEARN (Content > Recordings). Remember that lectures are OPTIONAL.
- Recordings of the weekly conversation class on LEARN (Content > Recordings). Conversation classes are also OPTIONAL.

You will be required to:

- Write a weekly short summary activity about a grammar point explained during the week (12 summaries worth 24%).
- Work on 3 assignments (compiti) to be written/ spoken in Italian and a fourth video assignment through video assignment on LEARN (21+ 7= 28%).
- Complete Top Hat Exercises on the online platform (Top Hat). Please note that the exercises are usually due after 2, 3 or even 4 weeks. The different exercises should be completed during the specific week when the grammar point being tested by the exercise/s is explained in the weekly unit. Unless you are completely confident, avoid doing all assigned activities at once in the first week. These exercises are worth 22% of the final assessment for this course.

Schedule

It is strongly recommended that you follow the course schedule provided below. The schedule outlines what you should be working on each week of the course and lists the important due dates for the assessments. By following the schedule, you will be prepared to complete the assessments in a timely manner and succeed in this course.

Please remember to always consult the beginning-of-the -week announcement on the LEARN announcements at the beginning of every week in order to know what you should complete by the end of each week.

REVIEW FOR FINAL TEST

Final test will be held on Tuesday July 26th

POLICY ON LATE WORK, MISSED ASSIGNMENTS, AND MAKE-UP TESTS

Please make every effort to submit your work on time. In order to succeed in this course, you should keep the pace and not fall behind. If, for justifiable reasons, you cannot submit a particular assignment on time, kindly email me ahead of time and produce a Verification of Illness Form. If you have COVID 19 symptoms, the standard procedure established by the University of Waterloo will be followed.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Zoom bi-weekly lectures are completely optional. MP4 Recordings will be made available same day as the lecture and thus you can consult the recording in your own time. The first Zoom lecture is on Tuesday May 3rd 1:30 pm – 2:15 pm ET and the last Zoom lecture is on Thursday July 21st. The 45-minute conversation sessions are also optional and recordings will be made available. The first conversation class is on Friday May 13th at 1:30 pm ET.

CORRESPONDENCE

Please remember to check the beginning-of-the-week announcement every Monday. For general questions about the course, use the discussion board Q&A.

For other more specific or personal matters email me at andrea.privitera@uwaterloo.ca

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Academic Integrity: Please remember that during COVID 19 online learning, issues of academic integrity are even more important and instructors are being extra vigilant. In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. [Check www.uwaterloo.ca/academicintegrity/ for more information.]

Turnitin

Turnitin.com: Text matching software (Turnitin®) may be used to screen assignments in this course. Turnitin® is used to verify that all materials and sources in assignments are documented. Students' submissions are stored on a U.S. server, therefore students must be given an alternative (e.g., scaffolded assignment or annotated bibliography), if they are concerned about their privacy and/or security. Students will be given due notice, in the first week of the term and/or at the time assignment details are provided, about arrangements and alternatives for the use of Turnitin® in this course.

It is the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor if they, in the first week of term or at the time assignment details are provided, wish to submit the alternate assignment.

Turnitin® at Waterloo

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of their university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Petitions and Grievances, www.sju.ca/sites/default/files/upload_file/PLCY_AOM_Student-Petitions-and-Grievances_20151211-SJUSCapproved.pdf. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the St. Jerome's Advising Specialist, Student Affairs Office, who will provide further assistance.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing an academic offence, and to take responsibility for their actions. [Check www.uwaterloo.ca/academicintegrity/ for more information.]

A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) should seek guidance from the course instructor, academic advisor, or the Associate Dean.

When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Discipline, www.sju.ca/sites/default/files/PLCY_AOM_Student-Discipline_20131122-SJUSCapproved.pdf. For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to University of Waterloo Policy 71, Student Discipline, www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71.htm. For typical penalties, check the Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties, www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/guidelines/penaltyguidelines.htm.

Appeals: A decision made or penalty imposed under the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes they have a ground for an appeal should refer to the St. Jerome's University Policy on Student Appeals, www.sju.ca/sites/default/files/PLCY_AOM_Student-Appeals_20131122-SJUSCapproved.pdf.

Note for students with disabilities: AccessAbility Services, located in Needles Hall (Room 1401) at the University of Waterloo, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with AccessAbility Services at the beginning of each academic term, www.uwaterloo.ca/accessability-services/.

Intellectual Property:

Students should be aware that this course contains the intellectual property of their instructor, TA, and/or St. Jerome's University. Intellectual property includes items such as:

1. Lecture content, spoken and written (and any audio/video recording thereof);
2. Lecture handouts, presentations, and other materials prepared for the course (e.g. PowerPoint slides);
3. Questions or solution sets from various types of assessments (e.g., assignments, quizzes, mock tests, final exams); and
4. Work protected by copyright (e.g., any work authored by the instructor or TA or used by the instructor or TA with permission of the copyright owner).

Course materials and the intellectual property contained therein, are used to enhance a student's educational experience. However, sharing this intellectual property without the intellectual property owner's permission is a violation of intellectual property rights. For this reason, it is necessary to ask the instructor, TA, and/or St. Jerome's University for permission before uploading and sharing the intellectual property of others online (e.g., to an online repository).

Permission from an instructor, TA, or the University is also necessary before sharing the intellectual property of others from completed courses with students taking the same/similar courses in subsequent terms/years. Doing so without expressed permission is considered a violation of intellectual property rights. Please alert the instructor if you become aware of intellectual property belonging to others (past or present) circulating, either through the student body or online. The intellectual property rights owner deserves to know.

Mental Health Support on campus and in the community

Please be aware that SJU offers help to students who need mental health support during the semester. Lindsay Thompson is the SJU Wellness Coordinator (Lindsay.thompson@uwaterloo.ca) and is available by email. The UWaterloo Faculty of Arts provides details about available support on its website.
